TYLER PLACE AUCTION.

THE GREATEST OF ALL THE PUBLIC SALES ON RECORD.

A Total Frontage of 46,500 Feet Sold in Twelve Hours for $1,111,929, at an Average of $23 a Foot—Ten Blocks Out of the Forty-eight to Be Disposed Of at Private Sale—Auction of City Property—Office Sales of the Day.

It has been proven by an actual and severe test within the past two days that the condition of the St. Louis real estate market is such that no amount of property, let it be ever so large, that may be offered at forced sale under the auctioneer's hammer, can shake the confidence people have in the stability of values of their funds in the continued prosperity of the city. The test was in offering 87,600 front feet for sale at one time in Tyler place. There were many predictions that the attempt would prove disastrous. It was said that such an immense amount thrown upon the market would paralyze the demand and unsettle values in a way that would make it utterly impossible to sell the ground. The elements combined with gloomy prophecies in making the auction a failure, for on Monday, the first day, a rain poured all forenoon, and showers in the afternoon forced an adjournment of the auction at 3:30 p. m. in the midst of a thunderstorm. But for all that 16,804 front feet were sold the first day for an aggregate of $554,000. On the second day, Tuesday, the weather was delightful, all that could be desired and the sale opened at 11:30 a. m. It continued until the istenues of the hour brought the proceedings to a close, at which time the total amount of property sold, while the auctioneer was on the stand, about twelve and a half hours in all, footed up 46,500 feet, for an aggregate consideration of $1,111,929, at an AVERAGE PRICE OF $23 A FOOT in round figures. As a record breaker these conclusions make the Tyler place auction the greatest event of that character in this city in a point of rapidity with which the property was sold and the aggregate amount of money obtained for it, the great Stoddard Addition sale nearly forty years ago not excepted. The result is of great benefit to the city, as it gives local property owners and outside speculators greater confidence than ever in the stability of real estate values. Next to the people, the credit for its success is due to the enterprising and successful auctioneer, Wade Real Estate Co., whose ability to handle property seems to be limited only by the extent and bounds of the country. Of the 46 full-size city blocks in Tyler place the firm has sold 38, leaving 8 lots to be disposed of at private sale. And those lots, too, would have been sold yesterday had the sun not set so early as it did. The lots which were unsold were a frontage of about 11,000 feet in blocks 4, 9, 14, 19, 24, 29, 34, 39, 44, 49, 54, 59, 64, 69, 74, 79, 84, 89, 94, 99, 104, 109, 114, 119, 124, 129, 134, 139, 144, SCHOOL DIRECTOR BRADY is a false alarm.

THE lady teachers' trip idea of the SUNDAY

Post-Dispatch is rolling beneficently on.

THE Democrats of Missouri evidently do not want any Jasper Burkism and in-expert grain inspection business in their pockets.

By getting a first-class river excursion with their wants the want advertisers of the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH get far more than they advertise for.

THE want advertisers of the SUNDAY

Post-Dispatch have a delightful treat in store for them in the next SUNDAY POST-

DISPATCH river excursion.

WHEN the presidential office is made the stepping stone to wealth through the favors of rich men, the honor of the place disappears beneath its dishonorable emolument.

THE census-takers cannot chase citizens or choke information out of them. The lists submitted by them should, therefore, be correctly filled for every house in St. Louis.

SOME big railroad "pulls" are in operation at the St. Joseph Convention, but the strings are not worked by a man of the name of O'Day. The "pull" only goes with the pass.

THERE is no doubt that the State Democratic Convention will endorse the judgment of the Post-Dispatch with reference to Railroad Commissioner DOWN-

ING's abuse of his office.

It is the duty of the Street Department to compel street railway companies to replace torn-up street pavements exactly as they were made by the city. This duty has been neglected in several notable instances.

THE next time Director BRADY is put under oath to attend a meeting of the School Board he should be sworn on a stack of free text books. Doubtless they would have a more binding effect than Bibles on him.

ALL of the important school business attendant upon the close of the scholastic year must be postponed for a month at least in order that a few chuckle-head School Directors may work out their petty schemes of ambition and revenge.

The reputation of Railroad Commissioner DOWNING by his own neighbors and the consequent annihilation of his chance to succeed himself is a warning to public officials that playing the role of Caesar in this country

CITY TREASURER FORBES was the recipient of much grateful praise from the municipal employees and general commendation for advancing the money to pay salaries during the delay of the appropriation bill in the Municipal Assembly.

A bill has now been introduced, however, to refund him the interest, amounting to $145, on the advance.

Should the bill be adopted, we must insist on the withdrawal of all the praise except so much as may be due for the risk assumed by the City Treasurer. It isn't fair that an official should have both praise for generosity and the money also.

AVAILABLE CITY ASSETS.

In his annual report Comptroller

STEVENS discusses several financial questions of importance with which the city authorities should deal in a vigorous and business-like way. He calls attention to the bonded indebtedness of the municipality which should be reduced in a systematic manner, to the necessity of meeting the cost of erecting the new City Hall and of accumulating a fund for the purchase of the electric lighting plant at the expiration of the companies' franchises.

The power of settling every one of these questions and others of a similar nature is in the hands of the Municipal Assembly. They could have been settled long ago had the Assembly treated the business of the city as its members would treat their own business. In the privileges and franchises granted lavishly to corporations for street railways, gas manufacture and sale, and other public services, lay the possibility of a splendid municipal income, sufficient to meet all extra needs and to give a handsome balance to be applied to reducing the burdens of the taxpayers.

Although many valuable franchises have been given away in the past, there is yet ample opportunity for a reform which will cover every point raised by the Comptroller and be of incalculable benefit to the city. If the franchisees asked hereafter be treated as available assets to be realized upon to the largest extent and capital be made to bid for them by offering the excess of fair remuneration on money invested to the city, the treasury will not lack for funds for all purposes.

The city would then be run on business principles in the interest of all citizens and not for the benefit of a few rich men.

CARTER HARRISON's plan for reforming municipal legislation in Chicago is the election of one Alderman for each ward by the voters of the ward, and the election by general ticket of as many more Aldermen as there are wards. That plan of reforming our School Board has failed to work well thus far, simply because the voters of the city failed to turn out at the election. It might work well with the Australian ballot reform in full operation.

And it was supplemented with a heavy poll tax on voters, to be remitted only on proof of voting at general elections.

THERE is a rule of the School Board providing that the seats of members absenting themselves from two successive regular meetings when not unavoidably prevented from coming may be regarded as resigned by the absent members, and may be filled by special election. Why should not this rule be applied to the recalcitrant and absentee members of the present board?

WHY should Pension Commissioner

RAYM be abused for the alleged offense of accepting favors from pension attorneys and using his official position to further speculative schemes when the wife of the President accepts a gift worth a fortune from a Cabinet officer and a business man who is particularly interested in certain kinds of legislation and custom rulings?

THE effect of every vote in Congress on the silver question is seen in a further advance of silver in the London market.

The latest quotation gives the silver dollar a gold value of 85.5. This is the highest figure it has reached since 1885, and is 15 1/2 per cent higher than the average for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1889.

CITY COMPTROLLER STEVENS in his annual report recommends the adoption of the Union Market bill as a transaction which would result in turning into the City Treasury profits badly needed at present. The Comptroller's opinion is shared by all citizens who have given the subject intelligent consideration.

THE next SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH river excursion will undoubtedly exceed in enjoyment the first excursion, which will place it far above any other event of the season. Every want advertiser in the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH up to the date of its occurrence is entitled to a ticket.

THE edge of the disappointment of St.

Louisians over the refusal of the House Military Committee to visit the city and inspect Jefferson Barracks is taken off by the assurance that the appropriation for the improvement of the Barracks receives a favorable report.

Col. Dudley's Prosperity.

From the St. Paul Globe.

Col. W. W. Dudley has been so prospered that he has opened his pension office in Washington that he now has fifteen clerks, equal to three blocks of five, and will make large additions as the new laws are passed.

Education Will Educate.

From the Providence Journal.

Mr. J. S. Clarkson continues to mourn that two-thirds of the intelligence of the country, as represented by the newspapers, are on the side of the Democrats on the issue of tariff reform.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12.
The Day Now Fixed for the Teachers to Leave St. Louis—The Ballots.

At a meeting of the three winning lady teachers in the Post-Dispatch trip-to-Europe contest held yesterday, all details of the trip were practically completed. It was decided that the ladies should leave St. Louis on Wednesday, June 12. They will arrive in the metropolis on the 27th inst., and from that time until the day of sailing they will be entertained in New York by the Post-Dispatch. It is very probable that several other teachers will accompany the winners and that quite a large party may be made up. During the five days that the ladies spend in New York they will visit all points of interest in that big city and will be afforded an opportunity of enjoying themselves in any way they may desire. The Post-Dispatch, the Commercial Appeal, and the Evening Star, which parties, has been taken for them, sails early on the morning of July 4. The ladies will embark on the evening of June 30 and will sleep on the vessel, and when they rise in the morning they will find that the journey has begun. On the vessel will be two lady teachers sent by the New York World as the result of an election similar to that of the Post-Dispatch. There will also be a number of hundred leading editors of medical journals and physicians from all parts of the United States, on their way to attend the International Congress. The company, therefore, will be more pleasant for teachers than that usually gathered on a steamer. The itinerary of the European trip has already been given. One feature not yet mentioned is that one of the days spent in Paris will be July 14. This is the anniversary of the battle of the Marston, an event which Paris celebrates with all possible gaiety and splendor. The illuminations and the fireworks of the evening surpass anything of the kind attempted in the world. The teachers will witness all this celebration, one of the most attractive sights which the French capital ever presents. The remainder of the trip is so timed as to be all points of interest at the time when they are at their best.

Hoffman Brothers & Co. of 315 North Third street, general agents of the Fidelity & Casualty Co. of New York, write to say that Mrs. Rose W. Fanning and her husband, Frederick, have received the $5,000 accident policies promised by them to the two winners in the teachers' contest.

Send for Your Ballots.
The ballots cast in the election have been ascertained as far as possible. Many thousands of them have been given to the candidates, but large numbers yet remain. Teachers who desire to get them can do so by calling or sending a messenger to this office. The packages are so numerous that it is impossible to list them otherwise. Teachers who desire to secure the ballots are requested to call early, as soon as possible, as the packages will not be kept much longer.

Sensational Statement Made by a Member of the Washington Board of Education.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 11.—A Chronicle special from Omaha says: T. H. Leach of Vancouver, a member of the State Board of Education, announced to the board yesterday that he had been offered $5,000 as a bribe to bring about a change in the text-books. He also laid before the board a check for the money drawn in his favor by C. Eames on the First National Bank of Portland, Ore. Last Thursday the board adopted a resolution by which the board adopted a text-book for the State, the American Book Co., representing the book trade, a vote of 28 to 10. Two members of the board, who are connected with a detective agency in Portland, wanted Leach to move for reconsideration so far as the text-book was concerned. Leach moved to reconsider Monday. The motion was accepted and the matter left open. He then received the check and exposed the plot yesterday. The board promptly reaffirmed its action of last Thursday and passed resolutions condemning the American Book Co.

RESTORED TO HER FATHER
EDWARD BRIFERT OF BELLEVILLE SECURED POSSESSION OF HIS CHILD.
Stolen by the Mother in Belleville and Brought to This City One Week Ago—She Shows No Emotion and Refuses to Fight the Case—Defendant Her Brother-in-Law—Legal Notes.

A crowd of Belleville (Ill.) citizens were in Judge Klein's court this morning as witnesses and spectators in the trial of the Selbst habens corpus case, which was decided after a short hearing.
Mr. Edward Brifert is a lively-stable keeper in Belleville, Ill., in partnership with his father, Arthur Brifert. He was married ten years ago and in 1929 secured a divorce from his wife on the charge of adultery. Aurelia, a pretty little girl, now about nine years of age, was the fruit of the marriage and she was remanded to the custody of the father. The mother came to St. Louis, and according to legal money several witnesses did not live in the best neighborhoods while here, one of her addresses being 210 Chestnut street, and at present No. 16 North Eleventh street. The child has remained with her father in her grandfather's house in Belleville, and has been going to school constantly. She received the kindest care and attention from her grandparents and has become greatly attached to them. One week ago the little girl was stolen while on her way to school by her mother. She was carried to this city and kept her at No. 16 North Eleventh street. Mr. Selbst discovered her after hunting an entire week and secured a writ of habeas corpus last Monday. The mother was told to appear and answer cause this morning why the father should not have the child. She was in court as ordered and when asked if she had not and did not intend employing one, Mrs. Selbst would have been well-handled at some earlier period in her life and may have looked different, but she showed no emotion whatever during the trial. Mr. Selbst, his father, J. Ragan, Sheriff of St. Clair County, Wesley Nichols and Detective John Hobbs gave their testimony and the jury returned a verdict for Mr. Selbst. Judge Klein then remanded the child to the custody of the father. They left the court arm in arm, followed by the crowd. Mrs. Selbst was a few moments and then hurried away. She stopped long enough, however, to drop a few remarks to the crowd. She said she was very sorry for the effect that she had the satisfaction of putting Mr. Selbst to a great deal of worry and expense over the case.

Margaret Lockwood won her suit against her brother-in-law, O. S. Spencer, this morning. The jury giving her judgment for $150. Mr. Spencer married Miss Lockwood's sister some years ago and then died. Over a year ago Mr. Spencer sent for Miss Lockwood, and according to her story, asked her to keep house for him on condition that she should have all the furniture. Mr. Spencer married a second time, recently, and on introducing his second wife said Miss Lockwood could go. She went to take the furniture, but he prevented her and she entered a replevin suit against him and won it. He appealed and the jury placed a value of $150 on the furniture which they said Miss Lockwood should have and also gave her $19 damages.

High Priced Amusement.
A jury in Judge Klein's court assessed Henry B. Schilling $250 yesterday for beating Frank Wanaschek. Wanaschek and Schilling met in a saloon on Natural Bridge road and King's highway last New Year's day and Schilling, pointing upon Wanaschek and beat him in a most cruel manner. Wanaschek entered suit against Schilling and got a verdict for $50 in Justice Sheehan's court. Schilling appealed and the jury added $200 to the former verdict. A motion for a new trial has been filed.

Legal Notes.
C. J. Macowan has entered suit against H. C. Underwood on notes for $1,260.65.
The Court of Appeals will meet tomorrow morning and probably adjourn for the term.
The application of the Huttig Sales & Discount Co.'s employees mutual aid society for a degree of incorporation was referred to Walter McClinton yesterday.
Kate Berkley was divorced from William Berkley by Judge Klein this morning and she was awarded the custody of her child, a boy, 7 years of age. She charged him with desertion, saying she was married in March, 1926, and that he deserted her in August, 1928.
A replevin suit was filed by the Monke Shoe Manufacturing Co. against Max Giossman and Sheriff Phillips, to recover possession of $324 worth of shoes in possession of the sheriff. The shoe company says the shoes were bought last Saturday and Giossman confessed judgment on Monday in favor of his mother and O. J. Lewis & Co.

THE "PEOPLE'S" GAS BILL Referred to the Committee on Public Improvement—Its Provisions.
The newly introduced bill of the "People's Gas & Electric Light & Power Co." has been referred by the City Council to the Committee on Public Improvements.

It virtually covers the "ninety-cent" ordinance, which the Laclede Co. is now fighting in the courts, the Branham bill, the bill introduced under the "Brazzle" process and the old St. Louis Gas Co.'s franchise. The projectors and backers of the new company deny most emphatically that there is any intention of selling out or combining in any way with the Laclede company. They claim that they claim that the bill on its face is the fairest for the city, and the strongest support as a solution of the "cheap gas" problem. The company asks for 8 per cent on the capital invested; the balance of its net earnings or profits to be paid to the city. It further offers to sell to the city at stated periods the entire plant or plants in operation at a price to be fixed by the city. The company and the judges of the Circuit Court. The bonds for the fulfillment of the contract and the penalties for non-fulfillment, are similar to those of the St. Louis Gas and Electric Co., under which the Laclede company is now operating its plants.
The position taken by the People's Gas & Electric Light & Power Co. is simply that they have made a bona fide offer to furnish gas at 9 cents instead of 11 cents, with guarantee never before given by any corporation, and it is whether the people will be forced to pay the old price, or will be allowed to get the benefit of the new price.

A New Bank.
A new bank has been started in South St. Louis and Adolphus Busch is one of the principal stockholders. It will be located at Pestalozzi and Broadway and will be for the convenience of the manufacturers doing business in the South End. Its capital will be $200,000, all of which has been subscribed for by business men of that section of the city. The bank will be a national bank, either the Ambassador of St. Louis or the Manufacturers'. It will do a safe deposit business also and have a savings department for workingmen.

HYDROPHOBIA.
The Death of Corrievan—Cases Under Treatment at the Pasteur Institute.
By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.
New York, June 11.—An autopsy was made by Deputy Coroner Jenkins yesterday on the body of Edward Corrievan, the farm laborer from Harrieville, B. I., who died on Monday afternoon at Bellevue Hospital from the effects of a dog bite. The case had excited great interest among the medical staff of Bellevue Hospital, and a crowd of physicians assisted at the examination. A scar about an inch long was found on the right side of the right wrist where the man had been bitten about a month ago. The organs were slightly congested and the blood was in a fluid condition. There was a small hemorrhage in the fourth ventricle of the brain, and the entire covering of the brain was congested. The death was due to hydrophobia. A portion of the man's spinal column and brain will be submitted to a microscopic examination. Dr. Jenkins said the appearance of the organs was not unlike that found in cases of rabies. The body will be sent to Harrieville for interment. Corrievan leaves a wife and a family. Dr. Gibler of the Pasteur Institute, who had expressed the opinion that Corrievan would linger for several days, was much surprised at his sudden death. It is said that the immediate cause of death is the bursting of a blood vessel in the brain.

Mr. Gibler had a new patient yesterday, a 7-year-old boy from Augusta, Ga., who was bitten on the face and arm last Sunday. It is believed the dog was suffering from hydrophobia and he was killed. The boy was accompanied by his brother and received his first inoculation yesterday. He screamed with pain when the operation was performed. Among others of Dr. Gibler's new patients a man from Iowa who was bitten on the hand ten days ago. He received his second inoculation yesterday.
Judge Masterson of Texas received his final dose of anti-hydrophobic virus yesterday, and is confident of the successful result of the treatment and left for home.
The seven little Illinois boys will complete their course of treatment next Sunday, with the exception of one who is suffering from an attack of mumps and who will have to remain here a few days longer.
Died of Fright.
CINCINNATI, O., June 11.—Harry White, a young telephone operator, was bitten by a dog last April. He read of the symptoms of hydrophobia, and yesterday morning he told his family they must strap him to the bed.
